Hi Rob / s22 –

Just updating this advice, following conversations last night and today.

We note that the 2017 National Inventory Report will be submitted to the UN on or before 26 May 2019.

The decision to publish this report (and its attachments) on the department's website should be sought once ministers are sworn in, together with the release of the quarterly report.

Thanks again Rachel –

As discussed with Kushla earlier - given the timing of the election it would be appropriate to hold off on seeking a decision on the quarterly update, and submission of the 2017 National Inventory Report, until ministers are sworn in.

Very happy to discuss,

Hi Matt,

The brief seeking the Minister's decision to table the December 2018 Quarterly update had just been sent through to parliamentary by Rob (MS19-000311).

The brief also includes for the Minister's noting, our intention to submit the 2017 National Inventory Report to the UNFCCC on 26 May 2019.

As discussed, given the size of the National Inventory Report I have printed off a hard copy of the briefing pack for your collection when you drop by.

Kind Regards
