

New hotline to assist Authorised Officers 1800 851 305

If you are an Authorised Officer and need assistance with an inspection, or have a general plant export query, you can now call 1800 851 305.

This number will connect you to a dedicated team who will help to answer your questions.

The Department of Agriculture's redline (1800 803 006) is still available if you need to confidentially report information about suspected breaches of Australian quarantine and inspection laws.
