NEW CERTIFICATE TEMPLATE TO BE USED FOR NON-VIABLE SEAFOOD EXPORTS TO THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

This market access advice replaces MAA13/07.

Non-viable fish and fishery products

The Department of Agriculture advises that the certificate for non-live fish and fish products (FXRU01) is now available electronically through EXDOC.

Please note that this is a revised version of the FXRU01 certificate. The changes to the certificate have been approved by the Russian authorities and allow the certificate to be issued electronically.

Live fish

For live fish exports use the manual only certificate titled “Veterinary certificate for live fish and fish product exported into the Russian Federation.”

Please contact exports@daff.gov.au if you have any queries.
