

National Fisheries Plan

Progress report 2024

635

total projects/
programs
underway

37%

of work is on sustainability

13%

of work is on adaptation

10%

of work is on Indigenous
opportunity

10%

of work is on community
connection

Work undertaken by priority

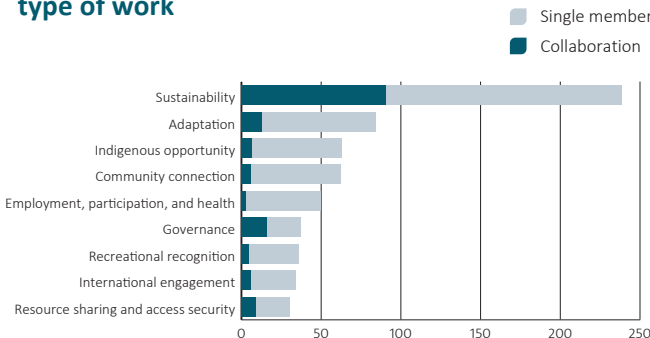

Case study 1

Seafood Careers Australia

This year, Seafood Industry Australia and the Fisheries Research and Development Corporation launched the Seafood Careers Australia website. At seafoodcareers.com.au, individuals can explore the wide variety of opportunities to get involved with industry. There's an ocean of opportunity. Get connected today!

Count of current work undertaken by priority and type of work

Case study 2

Abalone Industry Reinvestment Fund

The Tasmanian government's Abalone Industry Reinvestment Fund is supporting projects to increase the sustainability and productivity of Tasmania's abalone fishery while addressing the impacts of the longspined sea urchin.